

The Financial Advisor Career Opportunity

Our client is seeking dedicated individuals with an entrepreneurial spirit, proactive mindset, and commitment to helping Canadians achieve their financial goals. Whether you are considering a career change or seeking to improve outcomes for yourself and your clients, becoming a financial advisor demands high levels of dedication, commitment, and effort. For the right individual, with our support, this can be a deeply rewarding and professional career. You will have the freedom to build your practice on your terms, working directly with clients to establish relationships, provide comprehensive financial plans, and help them achieve financial confidence with their lifelong goals.

It's a rewarding career and we invite you to explore the opportunities we offer:

- Industry-leading training, support, and ongoing development throughout your career
- Support you through a team of advanced financial planning experts and a network of wealth planning, mortgage, and insurance planning specialists
- Offer exceptional income potential, where your earnings are reflective of your efforts
- Encourage independence and work-life balance as you plan your schedule

Qualifications:

- IFIC or CSC and LLQP
- 5+ years of financial industry experience

Company Information:

Our goal is to become the preferred financial partner for Canadians. We have established strong, lasting relationships with our clients and their families. Our financial planning approach considers all aspects of a client's financial life. We take the time to understand their life and financial goals, as well as their concerns for themselves and their loved ones. Then, we conduct a comprehensive analysis of their overall financial well-being. We regularly review and adjust our clients' plans as their circumstances change. This approach helps them seize opportunities in life and realize their full financial potential. Currently, we provide financial planning and wealth advice to over one million Canadians across the country through our network of financial advisors.

Compensation: Commission

Please send your resume to natalie@nataliegoldring.com